

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS IS:
MONDAY 13
MARCH 2023

WE ARE RECRUITING FOR A
DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

About us

Maiden Erlegh Trust was established in 2014 and is a growing community of six schools, comprising Primary, Secondary, Special and Alternative Provision establishments in Berkshire and Oxfordshire. In addition, we are privileged to have been approved to develop two further free schools, due to open in 2023 and our system leadership work extends beyond our own organisation through the Maiden Erlegh Institute.

You will find Maiden Erlegh Trust to be a place of opportunity, diversity and success for all, built upon values of inclusivity and high ambition for our entire community.

The role of Director of Special Education, is a new role for the Trust and presents a unique opportunity for the right candidate to drive the development and implementation of educational strategy across the breadth of our organisation, supported by an experienced team of directors and school leaders.

Find out more

If you are interested in the role, more information can be found within the recruitment pack HERE.

If you would like further information, or to discuss the role with the Executive Director of Education prior to application, this can be organised through our HR department via the email below.

ALL APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE SENT TO RECRUITMENT@MAIDENERLEGHTRUST.ORG
USING THE FORM PROVIDED.

Additionally, prospective candidates should write a personal statement of no more than two sides of A4 (Arial 12pt) detailing how your knowledge, skills and behaviours align to the criteria in the person specification.

Applications received which are not completed using the form provided may not be considered at shortlisting.

Maiden Erlegh Trust reserve the right to research applicants on social media platforms and the Internet, and the recruitment panel may take this information into consideration during the recruitment process.

